How to Use This Book

This workbook contains 40 groups of vocabulary words selected from Twilight. Many of these words will show up on your SAT, ACT, GED, or SSAT. Beginning at Group 1, refer to the Twilight page where each vocabulary word appears. Read the word in context and come up with a definition. Then check your definitions against those provided in this workbook and make corrections. I'll also show you synonyms, word parts, and memorization tools. Read these over a few times, and then complete the drills. Do that for all 40 groups. There's no easier or more fun way to learn 600 vocabulary words! By the end of this book, your vocabulary will be larger, your test scores will be higher, and you'll be a Twilight scholar!

2 Let's see how you did. Check your answers, write the exact definitions, and reread the sentences in Twilight where each word appears. Then complete the drills on the next page.

1. Noble (p. 1) means dignified or honorable, like a king . . . or a “vegetarian” vampire.
2. Sauntered (p. 1) means walked in a slow and leisurely manner. The word even sounds slow and relaxed.
3. Inconsequential (p. 3) means not important. This is a cool word to break apart. In- means not, as in inconsistent or ineffective, and consequential means having consequences. That's why inconsequential means not having consequences—unimportant.
4. Omnipresent (p. 3) means present in all places or common. This is another great word to break apart. Omni- means all or everywhere, as in omnipotent, which means all powerful. Synonym: ubiquitous.
5. Exiled (p. 4) means sent away or banished. Pretty much anytime you see a word that starts with ex-, it has to do with being released or going away, as in exit, excursion, ex-boyfriend, and exception.
6. Detested (p. 4) means hated a lot. You could say that Edward detested James, though even that is an understatement.
7. Erratic (p. 4) means inconsistent or unpredictable. Synonyms: arbitrary, capricious, fickle, impetuous, sporadic, whimsical.
8. Permanence (p. 5) means lastingness or the state of remaining the same. Synonyms: eternalness, intransience. You can see that permanence means lastingness by reading the sentence that follows it in Twilight—Charlie registered Bella for school, so she must be staying for a while. Using context is a great skill for the SAT, ACT, GED, SSAT, or any standardized test.

1. D. Noble means dignified or royal. The best answer is regal, which means royal. Inconsequential means not important, omnipresent means present everywhere, permanent means lasting, and intransient also means lasting (in- means not, and trans- means across, so intransient means not across, or staying put—lasting!).
2. B. Saunter means stroll. Use the process of elimination—cross out all choices that are definitely wrong. Amble also means stroll and is the best answer.
3. A. Ubiquitous means present everywhere or all-present, just like omnipresent.
4. C. Detest means hate. It's the opposite of love and respect. Lament means regret and is a bit closer, but choice C is certainly the best answer.
5. C. Make a sentence with the two words. For example, "Inconsequential means insignificant." Then, try your sentence for each pair of words.
  - A. Saunter (stroll) means run . . . no.
  - B. Exile (send away) means welcome . . . no.
  - C. Permanence means stability . . . yep, permanence means staying the same.
  - D. Noble means indecent . . . no, it means the opposite.
  - E. Omnipresent (present everywhere) means hateful . . . no way, they are totally unrelated.
6. B. "Banished (sent away) is the opposite of hailed (called for—Angela hailed a cab in Seattle)."
  - A. Eternal is the opposite of permanent . . . no, they are synonyms.
  - B. Omnipotent (all powerful) is the opposite of feeble (weak) . . . yes!
  - C. Hated is the opposite of detested . . . no, they are synonyms.
  - D. Erratic (inconsistent) is the opposite of pale . . . no, they are totally unrelated.
  - E. Noble is the opposite of honorable . . . no, they are synonyms.
7. D. Think of a word to fill the blank. Often you can borrow a word right out of the sentence. Then see which answer choice fits best:

"Katie feared/hated vampires, she feared and hated them and wrongly assumed that all were out to get her."

Use the process of elimination. Cross off answer choices that definitely do not work. You want a negative word, like "feared" or "hated." Only choice D (detested) works.

8. B. "Si-Shen had grown to expect Jon's erratic and erratic mood swings."

When trying to come up with a word to fill the blank, always look for evidence in the sentence. The words "erratic" and "mood swings" tell you what you need. Capricious works best; it is a synonym for erratic and refers to sudden and unexpected changes.
